

A vibrant, stylized illustration of a landscape. The sky is a deep blue, featuring a hot air balloon with red and yellow sections, a bright orange sun, and several white, fluffy clouds. The ground is a lush green field. In the foreground, there are several green, conical mountains of varying heights. A winding red path leads from a small town of colorful buildings (pink, blue, and orange) on the left towards the mountains. The overall style is clean and modern, using flat colors and simple shapes.
