THIS IS

LOVE

Sung along to the radio today, or a song on your phone? Chances are it was a song about love. Most songs are.

At its best, love demonstrates the best in a relationship between two human beings. And the chances are that love involves sacrifice. Acting selflessly, in word and deed.

At Easter, Christians remember the greatest act of love in history – and celebrate its glorious conclusion.

Jesus' death on the cross was an act of love, grace and mercy that promises a fresh start for all who believe. And his return to life makes Easter the greatest celebration in the church calendar.
